

Process Modelling Framework

BigDataStack Software Component developed by ATC

The Process Modelling Tool provides an interface to business users to model their business processes and workflows.

End Users

Business Analysts in different industries Data Scientists

Input

A list of nodes and possible attributes
A list of connection restrictions

Output

A process workflow in json format

Initial TRL

TRL 0

Final TRL

TRL 5

Process Modelling Framework

Key Features and Benefits

It provides an easy way for business analysts to model their processes

Essential Information for Users

- Restrictions in the connection of the nodes,
- Tool is dockerized
- Requires a username/password through the Visualisation tool

Implementation in BigDataStack Use Cases

All use cases (currently Shipping Management and Connected Consumer)

Differentiators from competitors in the market

Adaptable to every use-case

 bigdatastack.eu